8:00 a.m. - 8:30 a.m. Communicating with Generation Z

Session Description: Understanding the generation that is entitled, unfocused and lazy. Universal Truths of human Interaction. Learning to persuade anybody at any time.

Presenter: Henry Reyna, Secure Solutions, Inc.

Bio: Henry Reyna is just as passionate about helping businesses keep their employees and customers safe while also reducing their vulnerabilities and limiting their liability exposure. Clients span all industries and include multi-national Fortune 500 companies and smaller businesses, as well as churches, schools, clubs, and other nonprofit organizations.

As a Saginaw Township police officer, Reyna was responsible for investigating homicides, burglaries, armed robberies, and sexual assaults. He became a certified crime prevention specialist trained in the use of lighting, alarms, and surveillance cameras—eventually earning several commendations for outstanding performance in solving home burglaries, along with the Chief's Commendation for Outstanding Performance in the crime prevention unit.

Businesses rely on his training and experience for security assessments and customized security training programs, including robbery prevention and response, responding to acts of violence, verbal conflict de-escalation, and self-defense. His engaging and practical presentations on these subjects make him a sought-after speaker for those interested in giving their employees and members practical information they can use at work and home.

8:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m. Anxiety at School, in the Home and the Workplace

Session Description: Methods used to identify anxiety in students, parents and colleagues. We will also provide helpful tips and techniques to diffuse anxiety in the classroom, when dealing with parents in the office and our coworkers.

Presenter: Laura Gornicki, Saginaw ISD

Bio: Laura Gornicki graduated from Alma College with an undergraduate degree in English and Speech Communication, and earned a Masters degree from Central Michigan University in Special Education. She has had general education and special education teaching experience, and is currently employed as a Vocational Consultant for the Saginaw ISD. She has been certified and taught classes as a Nonviolent Crisis Intervention Instructor through the Crisis Prevention Institute since 2005.

9:00a.m. – 9:10 a.m. Break

9:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. Human Trafficking

Session Description: This presentation will include: Human Trafficking Types (Labor and Sex), Signs (what to look for in both types), Most targeted victims, Scenarios of how victims fall into the trafficking world, Signs law enforcement look for to recognize it, who do educators contact, True stories from law enforcement, victim advocacy programs, and victims themselves, and Long term effects on victims.

Presenter: Underground Railroad, Inc. of Saginaw

Organization Bio: Underground Railroad, Inc. recognizes that abuse is damaging to individuals and to society as a whole. The philosophy of the corporation is that abuse is rooted in a social structure that produces significant inequities in roles, relationships, resources, and power between women, men, and children. Abuse is criminal conduct, which cannot be tolerated. Prevention through education, advocacy and appropriate intervention is the ultimate goal. All victims should be provided safety and must be treated with dignity and respect.

Interventions that blame the victim and do not hold the abuser accountable for the violence are ineffective and inappropriate. The Underground Railroad shall encourage and advance the empowerment of victims and seek social change, which addresses the existing imbalance of power within violent relationships.

We believe that to make informed choices for themselves and their children, victims should have access to safety, information about abuse, available options, and community resources. To carry out their decisions, victims of abuse may require support and advocacy that respects their right to self-determination.

To this end the Underground Railroad will provide leadership in our community on issues affecting survivors and be accountable to survivors.

1:15 p.m. – 1:30 p.m. Break

1:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Presenter: Dr. Nicholas I. Clement, Ed. D.

Nicholas I. Clement "Dr. C" currently serves as the Ernest McFarland Citizen's Chair in Education by the Dean of the College of Education at Northern Arizona University. In this endowed full time faculty position, Dr. Clement is responsible for teaching & advocating for education throughout Arizona and the nation.

Dr. Clement has presented and been published nationally in the areas of after-school programs, marketing, customer service and legendary teaching. In his 38 year career, Dr. Clement has also served as a Special Education Teacher, High School Assistant Principal, Junior High Principal, High School Principal and Assistant Superintendent.

Dr. Clement earned his doctorate in Educational Administration at the University of Arizona, his master's degree in Educational Administration at the University of Nevada, and his bachelor's degree at the University of Michigan.

Currently - After a successful launch as an independent author / publisher, Dr. Clement recently 'penned' "Legendary Leadership Lessons - The Reading Pig". It is a 100 page, five chapter 'bob-sled' journey through his years as an administrator. It was successfully launched at the Barnes & Noble Foothills Mall with the help of the 115 member Flowing Wells Marching Band.

The second book introduces a long time prop in Dr. Clement's bag of tricks as an administrator fondly named "The Reading Pig". The second chapter highlights his antics and Dr. Clement's unexpected day out with the pig. As it turns out, there is so much "pork" in this story that "Dr. C" wrote a story capturing his day overseeing a second grade classroom for a day. Despite having the actual reading pig in hand as a prop to distract the students, they got the better of him.

*The Reading Pig Goes To School was published in February of 2016.

Publishing - Teachers Change Brains Media is a not for profit print/digital platform established in May of 2015. It is the center point of all of his publishing/speaking activity. In addition to his published works, Dr. Clement recently established Legendary Teacher Day in support of the profession that he remains active in. Legendary Teacher Day is the fourth Thursday in September. www.legendaryteacher.com
